

MAGNETIC PLACES

Penrith City Council has funded Magnetic Places projects that offer exciting, COVID-safe arts activities to residents living in 12 priority neighbourhoods*.

MAGNETIC CREATIVE FACES

NOW ● Learn how to film your life as you contribute to Penrith's first ever collaborative documentary- on your phone! You'll be coached via online videos and direct feedback from local filmmaker, Loretta Farrell. No experience required.

LIKE the Magnetic Faces page at facebook.com/MagneticCreativeFacesCommunity

NORTH ST MARYS NEW VISION

FEB-APR ● Try your hand at design and mosaic in COVID-safe workshops at North St Marys Neighbourhood Centre with artist, Abbas Makrab. Together you'll design and create a vibrant community mosaic.

REGISTER with Kim at Community Junction on 0406 528 331.

ST MARYS SINGS

FEB-APR ● Join this 10-week choir with Fusion Western Sydney and choir director, Clare Richards. Enjoy learning a new song or two in the safe and welcoming environment of St Marys Library. For all voices and ages.

REGISTER with Fusion on 02 8805 5900 / sydneywest@fusion.org.au

UNTITLED: UNTOLD TALES BY THE UNHEARD

APR-MAY ● Stroll along Queen St, St Marys to experience this multiscreen projection created by 6 storytellers of Pacific heritage with director Gabriel Faatau'uu Satiu. Respond in the moment via social media and you can help create a new work.

FIVE ELEMENTS ORRERY

MAY ● Walk through and around this captivating, 6-metre tall kinetic wind-light sculpture created by artist, Hugh Burrell with Laura Bestman. Its spinning arms and chassis covered in addressable LEDs will bring a touch of Vivid to St Marys.

MAGNETIC PLACES ART TRAIL

5-6 MAY 2022 ● Explore and celebrate these Magnetic Places projects over two exciting nights in and around Coachmans Park, St Marys.

Cambridge Park, Colyton, Cranebrook, Kingswood, Kingswood Park, Llandilo, Londonderry, North St Marys, Oxley Park, Penrith suburb, St Marys, Werrington*